In the event a condition exists which may endanger the property of other condominium owners or the common areas and it becomes necessary to make emergency repairs to said condominium units or replacement of equipment in said unit, the owner of such condominium unit shall be liable and pay for the said repairs or replacements of said condominium units or equipment.

20. INSURANCE: The lien reserved to the Condominium securing its assessment payment as provided in Paragraph 19 above shall be deemed a mortgage for the purpose of this paragraph.

In the event of loss, the Condominium shall use the net insurance proceeds to repair and replace damage to real or personal property covered by the policy, with any excess to be

If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to cover the loss, the Condominium shall levy an assessment against the unit owners in accordance with this Declaration to cover any deficiency.

In the event the common areas are totally destroyed or damaged, or in the event that said common areas are damaged or destroyed in excess of fifty percent (50%) of their then value, the common elements shall nevertheless be rebuilt as heretofore provided, unless seventy-five percent (75%) of all unit owners shall elect within thirty (30) days not to rebuild, in which event the Condominium shall be terminated, and the insurance proceeds shall be disbursed to the unit owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear.

In addition to the above and foregoing insurance, the Condominium, through its Board of Directors, shall purchase and keep in effect a comprehensive public liability policy, insuring the Condominium, its Board of Directors, Officers and unit owners against possible liabilities arising out of the use of the common elements and units. 21. APPORTIONMENT OF TAX OR SPECIAL ASSESSMENT AGAINST THE CONDOMINIUM AS A WHOLE.

In the event that any taxing authority having jurisdiction over the Condominium shall levy or assess any tax or special assessment against the Condominium as a whole as opposed to levying and assessing such tax or special assessment in common areas and facilities as now provided by law, then such tax or special assessment so levied shall be paid as a common expense by the Condominium and any taxes or special assessments which are to be so levied shall be included, wherever possible, in the estimated annual budget of the Condominium, or shall be separately levied and collected as an assessment by the Condominium against all of the owners of all condominium units and said condominium units if not included in said annual budget. The amount of any tax or special assessment paid or to be paid by the Condominium in the event that such tax or special assessment is levied against the Condominium as a whole instead of against each separate condominium unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in common areas and facilities shall be apportioned among the owners of all condominium units so that the amount of such tax or special assessment so paid or to be paid by the Condominium and attributable to and to be paid by the owner or owners of each condominium unit shall be that portion of such total tax or special assessment which bears the

In the event that any tax or special assessment shall be levied against the Condominium in its entirety, without apportionment by the taxing authority to the condominium units and appurtenant undivided interests in common areas and facilities, then the assessment by the Condominium, which shall include the proportionate share of such tax or special assessment attributable to each condominium unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in common areas and facilities, shall separately specify and identify the amount of such assessment attributable to such tax or special assessment, and the amount of such tax or special assessment so designated shall be and constitute a lien prior to all mortgages and encumbrances upon any condominium unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in common areas and facilities, regardless of the date of the attachment or recording of such mortgage or encumbrance, to the same extent as though such tax or special assessment had been separately levied by the taxing authority upon each condominium unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in common areas and facilities.

All personal property taxes which may be levied or assessed against personal property owned by the Condominium shall be paid by the Condominium and shall be included as a common expense in the annual budget of the Condominium.

Any conveyance, mortgage or other instrument which purports to affect the conveyance, devise or encumbrance, or which purports to grant any right, interest or lien in, to or upon, a condominium unit, shall be null, void and of no effect insofar as the same purports to affect any interest in a condominium unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in common areas and facilities, unless the same purports to convey, devise, encumber or otherwise trade or deal with the entire condominium unit. (c) Any lien holder entering suit against an owner of a unit shall notify the Board of Directors.

29. REMEDIES IN EVENT OF DEFAULT. The owner or owners of each condominium unit shall be governed by and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration of Condominium, and its By-Laws, as any of the same are now constituted or as they may be amended from time to time. A default by the owner or owners of any condominium unit shall entitle the Condominium or the owner or owners of other condominium units or unit to the following relief.

(a) Failure to comply with any of the terms of this Declaration of Condominium or other restrictions and regulations contained in the By-Laws, or which may be adopted pursuant thereto, shall be grounds for relief which may include, without intending to limit the same, an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief, foreclosure of lien or any combination thereof, and which relief may be sought by the Condominium or, if appropriate, by an aggrieved owner of a condominium unit.

(b) The owner or owners of each condominium unit shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of his family, or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Condominium. Such liability shall include any by insurance companies of rights of subrogation.

(c) In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by the owner of any condominium unit, the Condominium, if successful, shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding, and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the Court.

(d) The failure of the Condominium or of the owner of a condominium unit to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by this Declaration of Condominium or other above-mentioned document, shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more shall preclude the party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies, or privileges as may be available to such party at law or in equity.

(e) The failure of the Developer to enforce any right, privilege, covenant or condition which may be granted to it by this Declaration of Condominium or other above-mentioned document shall not constitute waiver of its right to thereafter enforce such right, provision, covenant, or condition in the future.

30. USE OR ACQUISITION OF INTEREST IN THE CONDOMINIUM. All present or future owners, tenants, or any other person who might use the facilities of the Condominium in any manner, are subject to the provisions of this Declaration of Condominium and the mere act of occupancy of any condominium unit shall signify that the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium are accepted

32. INVALIDITY. The invalidity of any provisions of this Declaration shall not be deemed to impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the remainder of this Declaration and, in such event, all of the other provisions of this Declaration shall continue in full force and effect as if such an invalid provision had never been included herein.

33. WAIVER. No provision contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

34. CAPTIONS. The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Declaration nor the intent of any provision hereof.

35. NOTICE. Where unit owners have been notified by certified mail and no response from the unit owners has been received within twenty (20) days of the receipt of said certified mail, the Board of Directors shall have the power of attorney to vote said share or shares as they see fit in their own judgment.

36. GENDER. The use of the masculine gender in this Declaration shall be deemed to refer to the feminine gender and the use of the singular shall be deemed to refer to the plural, and vice versa, whenever the context so requires.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Developer has caused this Declaration
